

ALPHA RHO CHI

AUTOMATIC MONTHLY ELECTRONIC TRANSFERS

What is the Automatic Monthly Electronic Transfer Program?

Automatic Monthly Electronic Transfer program is a way in which you can pay your annual alumni dues by having it deducted directly from your checking account. The program is completely voluntary, and can be used in lieu of paying your dues in one lump at the beginning of the year.

How much does it cost?

If you choose to participate in the Automatic Monthly Electronic Transfer Program, the minimum payment is $7.00 per month. However, participants may elect to make a higher monthly deduction. Deductions will occur on the first day of the month.

Why should I choose to Participate in the Automatic Monthly Electronic Transfers Program?

This program is offered as a convenience to our Brothers, who prefer to pay alumni dues electronically, rather than writing a check and mailing it each year. With the advent of online banking, many of our brothers have grown accustomed to paying bills online. This program was adopted after a motion was passed during the 58th National Convention to not only make alumni payments easier, but to allow for a higher contribution rate amongst our internet savvy alumni.
