December 23, 2019

Dear Brothers,

I regret to announce that Brother Hao Phung has resigned his position as Worthy Grand Associate Architect (WGAA), effective December 18, 2019. His letter of resignation can be viewed here. The Grand Council accepted Brother Phung's resignation on December 20, 2019.

The Grand Council would like to express its sincere gratitude to Brother Phung for his many years of service to Alpha Rho Chi. During his time on the Grand Council, he spearheaded tremendous growth in alumni engagement, introduced modernized fraternity data management systems, and co-organized many successful national conventions. I ask that you join us in wishing Brother Phung the best in his future endeavors professionally and fraternally.

Until further notice, the responsibilities of the WGAA will be divided among the officers of the Grand Council and their appointees. Related correspondence should continue to be directed to wga@alpharhochi.org.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Fidelitas, Amor et Artes,

Phil Buckberg
Worthy Grand Architect
